

The Heartland Engineers

Kansas City District

Award contingent on several factors, to include:

- The ability to negotiate a construction price within funds available.
- Congressional authorization and appropriation.
- Participation of the contractor during the preconstruction services.
- Excessive team turnover and lack of team commitment.