ANNUAL AWARDS BANQUET

The R. Lynn Rylander Award, DeProspero Lifetime Achievement Award, Superior Achievement Awards, and Essay Contest winners will be presented at the Annual Awards Banquet on Monday, January 26, 2015 in conjunction with this year's Symposium. Please note that the Banquet is included for Industry registrants; Government registrants may purchase a Banquet ticket for an additional fee.

SYMPOSIUM THEME

Unique and focused Military, Intelligence and Diplomatic assets will continue to be at the forefront of Special Operations and Low Intensity Conflict across the globe. In an era of constrained budgets contrasted with increased uncertainty and violence, these assets will be critical to managing chaos and maintaining order in the global commons. This will require SOF to execute persistent operations, globally, in support of U.S. National objectives working in conjunction with our friends and allies. This environment dictates innovative force structure, interoperable technology, policy and doctrine beyond the current construct. In a unique Washington based Government Industry forum, the 26th Annual SO/LIC Symposium & Exhibition will explore requirements, options and potential statutory/policy/technology solutions to support persistent SOF operations across the globe.
