

The seal of the Joint Chiefs of Staff is centered in the background. It features a shield with a red and white striped field and a blue chief with a white star. The shield is flanked by two crossed swords and is encircled by a laurel wreath. The words "JOINT" and "CHIEFS OF STAFF" are inscribed on banners above and below the shield, respectively.

Improving Global Expeditionary Capability: Joint Providers

VADM Andy Brown
Director for Logistics, J-4
The Joint Staff

The Joint Staff J-4

J-4 Mission

Lead the Joint Logistics Enterprise to assess and strengthen Joint Force readiness, improve Joint Warfighting capability, and enable Globally Integrated Operations – while providing the best logistics advice to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs.

J-4 Focus Areas

- Support Current Operations
- Sustain Full Spectrum Readiness
- Operationalize the Joint Concept for Logistics Vision
- Develop Joint Logistics Leaders

Provide a Unique, Joint, Global Perspective to the Chairman

Joint Logistics Enterprise (JLEnt)

Integrated Processes That Provides JFC Freedom Of Action

