SWEDISH ROOTS
AMERICAN HERITAGE

An American flag is flying on a tall pole in front of a building with windows. The image is dark and has a low-key aesthetic. The flag is the central focus, with its stars and stripes clearly visible. The building behind it has several windows, some of which are dark, suggesting an interior view. The overall mood is solemn and patriotic.
