

MARINE CORPS SYSTEMS COMMAND
Equipping our MARINES

Marine Corps Systems Command Program Manager, Ammunition

Mr. Scott Adams
7 April 2022

Approved for Public Release

Approved for Public Release

MARINE CORPS SYSTEMS COMMAND

Equipping our MARINES

PM Ammo Portfolio Overview

6 Teams pressing forward:

- 152.1 Maneuver Ammunition & Missiles
- 152.2 Close Combat and Combat Ammunition
- 152.3 Environmental & Explosive Safety
- 152.4 Inventory Management
- 152.5 Plans & Analysis
- 152.6 Ammunition Operations & Systems

FY22 Focus Areas:

- New Force Structure Impact to Total Munitions Requirement
- .50 Cal Polymer Lightweight Ammunition
- Fielding Ordnance Information System-Marine Corps Operational Module
- FIAR/Audit
- 81MM Mortar Shortfalls
- Science and Technology Investment
- Explosives Safety Management Program (ESMP)
- Joint Service Collaboration (Lightweight IPT, Ammo Log R&D IPT, etc)
- Munition Maintenance Planning

Challenges:

- FIAR/Audit
- Economic Order Quantity procurements with JPEO A&A
- Presidential Drawdown Munition Replacement

- Lightweight ammunition packaging
- Increased lethality w/40mm weapons systems
- 3D Printable munitions and energetics

Total FYDP (FY22-25) : $2,113M

$(M)	FY22	FY23	FY24	FY25
AMMO	406.43	499.90	502.25	704.90
$(M)	FY22	FY23	FY24	FY25
RDT&E	10.12	10.72	8.76	2.74
PMC	15.30	19.16	22.71	31.03
PANMC	348.38	419.66	434.27	633.94
OMMC	32.63	50.36	36.51	37.19

Based on PB-23 controls

Approved for Public Release

- Polymer Cased Ammunition
- Signature on Target ammunition for 7.62mm /.50 Cal /.338 Norma
- Trace capability for 40mm HV (OWL)

Questions?

Mr. Scott Adams

scott.adams1@usmc.mil

(703) 414-9531