CYBERSECURITY

The Integrity of Products and the Impact to Mission Assurance

FACILITATOR

George Atwood
DLA Acquisition Deputy Director, J7

PANELISTS

Don Davidson
Cyber-Supply Chain Risk Management (SCRM) Programs at Synopsy

John Ellis
Software Division, Defense Contract Management Agency

Peter Battaglia
Deputy Director, DLA Mission Assurance (J3)

Travis Reid
Deputy Director, Cybersecurity & Operational Technology (OT) Chief Information Security Officer (CISO)

WARFIGHTER ALWAYS

Supply Chain Security Considerations

WARFIGHTER ALWAYS

- J6 through CERT, ALCC, et al
- J6 determines requirements and resources
- Supported through MEF/MET with BPA/BIA

20-22 Critical & 200+ DLA Systems

- Existing known vulnerability
- Active & Developing Programs to secure

~300 Suppliers

DISA

DLA J6

CMMC

1. DLA Systems & Data

2. Suppliers w/ CUI/Export Control/DLA Data

4. Everything Else

3. Critical Supplier Operations

To Be Determined

To Be Determined

- Other suppliers
- Systems outside of DLA
- May be critical to operations or support

18+ External Systems 10,000+ Suppliers

- Critical suppliers essential to DLA support
- Assess cybersecurity continuity plans
- Population determined by MEF/MET & STRAP

200-500(?) Suppliers

Supply Chain Risk Management Outcome and Strategy

WARFIGHTER ALWAYS

SCRM/SCS Decision Space

The SCRM Program Office coordinates systems, data, tools, and capabilities to assist in proactively determining the investments required to assure logistics functions and reactively address event-based issues and concerns.

WARFIGHTER ALWAYS

Distribution Statement A, Approved for public release. Distribution Unlimited.

WARFIGHTER ALWAYS

5