WHO WE ARE

The National Defense Industrial Association is the trusted leader in defense and national security associations. As a 501(c)(3) corporate and individual membership association, NDIA engages thoughtful and innovative leaders to exchange ideas, information, and capabilities that lead to the development of the best policies, practices, products, and technologies to ensure the safety and security of our nation. NDIA's membership embodies the full spectrum of corporate, government, academic, and individual stakeholders who form a vigorous, responsive, and collaborative community in support of defense and national security. For more than 100 years, NDIA and its predecessor organizations have been at the heart of the mission by dedicating their time, expertise, and energy to ensuring our warfighters have the best training, equipment, and support. INTEGRATED PROGRAM MANAGEMENT

WHO WE ARE

The Integrated Program Management Division promotes a strong industry-government working relationship to address disciplined program performance management methodologies for planning and executing programs to optimize outcomes. Disciplined program performance management methodologies include earned value management. The IPMD initiates and leads program management improvement initiatives with the DoD and other federal agencies for the mutual benefit of the industrial base and the government to understand and adapt to changes in the procurement environment.

OUR OBJECTIVES

- Collaborate with key stakeholders. The division proactively engages and participates with government, industry executive leadership, industry groups, academia, and other entities to foster the advancement of IPM
- Provide an open forum for industry, defense, civilian agency leaders and educators to promote IPM best practices
- Facilitate interaction with government policymakers to foster a better understanding of their mission through first-hand information on current topics such as impending policy, leadership, regulatory, or process changes that can affect programs
- Broaden professional networks with industry leaders, organization leaders from a variety of sectors such as civilian agencies and DoD services and other related program management disciplines such as systems engineering
- Solicit advice from experts while sharing program management best practices with industry and government counterparts
- Contribute to industry guides and white papers with working groups

HARASSMENT STATEMENT

NDIA is committed to providing a professional environment free from physical, psychological and verbal harassment. NDIA will not tolerate harassment of any kind, including but not limited to harassment based on ethnicity, religion, disability, physical appearance, gender, or sexual orientation. This policy applies to all participants and attendees at NDIA conferences, meetings and events. Harassment includes offensive gestures and verbal comments, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, inappropriate photography and recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact and unwelcome attention. Participants requested to cease harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately and failure will serve as grounds for revoking access to the NDIA event.

EVENT CODE OF CONDUCT

NDIA's Event Code of Conduct applies to all National Defense Industrial Association (NDIA), National Training & Simulation Association (NTSA) and Women In Defense (WID) meeting-related events, whether in person at public or private facilities, online, or during virtual events. NDIA, NTSA, and WID are committed to providing a productive and welcoming environment for all participants. All participants are expected to abide by this code as well as NDIA's ethical principles and practices. Visit NDIA.org/CodeOfConduct to review the full policy.

The NDIA has a policy of strict compliance with federal and state antitrust laws. The antitrust laws prohibit competitors from engaging in actions that could result in an unreasonable restraint of trade. Consequently, NDIA members must avoid discussing certain topics when they are together at formal association membership, board, committee, and other meetings and in informal contacts with other industry members: prices, fees, rates, profit margins, or other terms or conditions of sale (including allowances, credit terms, and warranties); AUDITORIUM of markets or customers or division of territories; or refusals to deal with or boycotts of suppliers, customers or other third parties, or topics that may lead participants not to deal with a particular supplier, customer or third party.

BIOGRAPHY

BARBARA PHILLIPS

Senior Performance Management Advisor
Office the EVM Program Executive, NASA OCFO (Aeyon, LLC)

Barbara Phillips is a senior advisor to the EVM Program Executive at NASA.

She led the development of the cross-cutting NASA Surveillance Plan and developed the Quarterly PMIAA EVM Dashboard mandatory reporting to OMB in concert with the EVM Program Executive and other senior executives. It uses EVM indicators and narratives to highlight leading indicators for senior leadership consideration and facilitates quarterly NASA DCMA EVMS Compliance Metrics (DECM) Test Metrics Practitioner Forum telecom to encourage and support the community of practice across NASA centers and suppliers.

Phillips has 25+ years of EVM experience, including time acting as EVM implementation analyst at Goddard Space Flight System where she was responsible for people, process, and tools on a $1B project. She also consulted small tech firms with EVM reporting requirements (budget of $25M). She is an active volunteer with the College of Performance Management (CPM) and is still the President of the Washington, DC chapter (elected in 2014). She's a frequent speaker at CPM, Empower User's Group (EUG), the NASA EV Working Group, and NASA Cost & Schedule Symposium.

Barbara holds a MS in Information Systems from George Mason University, earned her PMP in 2001, and her EVP in 2009.
